SUBJECT:

DEMOBILIZATION/REMOBILIZATION REQUIREMENTS FOR CHANGING PLEAD AND/OR BREAK IN SERVICE

☐ PERMANENT ☐ TEMPORARY

AUTHORITY (IF PERMANENT):

I volunteer to fill mobilization NE- _____ - _____, First Report Date/Ready Load Date (RLD): _____

_____ SECTION A: BREAK BETWEEN MOBS

In order to receive orders for the above mobilization, I AM REQUIRED to do the following:

1. Come off Active Duty Pay (including leave) by the following date (42 days/6 weeks before RLD): _____
2. When meeting with Personnel Support Detachment (PSD) during Expeditionary Combat Readiness Center (ECRC) demobilization/out-processing, do the following:
   a. Ensure the DD-214 Block 12. "RECORD OF SERVICE" b. "SEPARATION DATE THIS PERIOD" is a minimum 42 days/6 weeks before RLD listed above
   b. Sell back or roll over any unused regular leave necessary to meet the DD-214 Blk 12.b. date (See NAVADMIN 163-12.)
   c. Sell back or forfeit any unused Post Deployment/Mobilization Respite Absence (PDMRA) or "respite leave" to meet the DD-214 Blk 12.b. date (See MILPERSMAN 1050-272.)
3. Check in with my Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) immediately following my demobilization at ECRC, provide a copy of this Pg13, and ensure my Individual Mobilization Status (IMS) code is updated from RD1 to RD2. (The IMS code will first change from RM1 to RD1 once the Active Duty pay account is stopped, which is normally the same date as the Blk 12.b. date on the DD-214, but may take up to an additional 7 days to revert to RD1.)

If demobilizing to create a break in Active Service, I understand that the break must be a minimum of 31 days, and during such break, I WILL NOT perform any Active Duty of any type (including AT, ADT, ADSW, recall, MOB, etc.). (NOTE: Inactive Duty Training or Inactive Duty Training Travel, i.e. drills, may be performed.)

_____ SECTION B: ADDRESS CHANGE

If also changing to a local address to meet per diem restrictions, I AM REQUIRED to do the following:

1. After my IMS code has been changed to RD2 per paragraph 3 above, ensure the NOSC gains me back into a Reserve status and to the Reserve Pay System via Navy Standard Integrated Personnel System (NSIPS). (NOTE: while on a mobilization or other Active Duty, Reservists have an Active Duty vs. Reserve NSIPS account).
2. After being gained back into the Reserves in NSIPS, ensure the NOSC updates my Residence Address (in NSIPS) to a local address for the subsequent mobilization as defined by that location's particular local commuting area. (Often within 50 miles, but see the JTR Chapter 2, Section 0206 for more details.) Follow MILPERSMAN 1000-100.

OLD ADDRESS: _____ NEW ADDRESS: _____

City/State City/State

3. UTILIZE a break in service to perform a Residence Address change to REMOVE MY ELIGIBILITY for TDY entitlements when I am mobilizing to the same geographic area of my most recent mobilization.
4. NOT incur a Residence Address change during a break in service in order to BECOME ELIGIBLE for TDY entitlements for the mobilization for which I am volunteering

_____ SECTION C: Involuntary Separation Pay (ISP)

I acknowledge that if I am eligible for ISP, by taking a 31 day break prior to the new mobilization for which I am volunteering, and by accepting additional Active Duty orders, I am no longer eligible to receive ISP.
I understand that if I do not adhere to the above specified actions, especially if those actions impact the SEPARATION date I come off active duty pay, I am subject to cancellation from the mobilization or other action, as required.
